Rental Properties

Per City Ordinance, trash removal is ultimately the responsibility of the property owner. If you wish to have trash service be a tenant responsibility, please pass all relevant information on to them. If a tenant chooses to opt out and does not have a legal way to dispose of their trash, the property owner will be contacted by code enforcement for violations. If a tenant fails to pay for their trash service, the property owner may face late fees and a lien against their property taxes.
